

EL SALVADOR
Penal Code.

Chapter II. Relating to the Life of the Human Being, Proper Training, Abortion, Consent, and Offences

Article 133. Whoever causes an abortion with the consent of the woman, or the woman who causes her own abortion or give her consent to another person that would undertake it, shall be punished by imprisonment of two to eight years.

Abortion without consent

Article 134. Whoever causes an abortion without the consent of the woman, shall be punished with imprisonment from four to ten years.

The same penalty is incurred for a person who carries out an abortion upon a woman, having achieved her consent by force or deception.

Aggravated Abortion

Article 135. If abortion was committed by a doctor, pharmacist, or people who perform them as ancillary activities of the aforementioned professions, when dedicated to this practice, shall be punished with imprisonment from six to twelve years. Also imposed is the penalty of disqualification from the practice of the profession or activity for the same period.

Induction or Abortion Aid

Article 136. Whoever shall bring a woman, or provide economic or other means for an abortion to be performed, shall be punished with imprisonment from two to five years.

If the person assisting or inducing the abortion is the progenitor of the abortion, the penalty shall be increased by one-third of the maximum penalty prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

Abortion Death

Article 137. Whoever negligently causes an abortion shall be punished with imprisonment from six months to two years.

A wrongful abortion caused by the pregnant woman herself, or her attempt to cause her abortion is not punishable.

[Jacobson note: The Penal Code of El Salvador above is (in part) consistent with, but also seriously violates, the Laws of God and corresponding Laws of Nature created by Him, which require civil government, as a foremost duty, to exercise lawful authority to protect innocent human life. It complies with the Universal Law by protecting pregnant mothers and unborn children. But it violates that Law by minimizing or eliminating the penalties for murdering unborn children or causing a woman to abort her child.]
